

MISCELLANEOUS.

WISHING TO CHANGE BUSINESS.
We will, retail, for cash, my entire stock of FANCY STOCKS consist in sixty items.
Ladies' Dress Trunks and Fringes, latest styles; Gloves, Jewelry's, Oshware, Buck, Gauntlets, &c., for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children; Skirts, Cambric, Organza, &c.; Mufflers, Hosiery, Ladies' and Children's, every size; Buttons, gilt, gilt and glass, argy variety; Purses, Handbags and Bijous'; Soaps, all kinds; Underwear, Ladies' and Children's; Headgear, U. S. Army, Forte-Monales, Bell Ribbons, &c., &c.; Women Goods just opened, Nubias; Children's Clothing, Knit Goods, &c., &c.; J. L. CAMPION, Market street, 8th floor, bet. Fourth and Fifth.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
UNLESS called for and freight and charge paid by the 26th October, 1859, at public auction, on the wharf of the Louisville and Cincinnati Steamboat Landing, at Louisville, two small boats, marked J. K. on the 28th and one block of marble, marked J. K. on the 28th and slate, and the bill of lading J. Karr. 20 bags of Spice, 10 bags Diamond, 10 bags, and 10 bags of Wool, in the bill of lading. Same to be made for cash. J. CAMPION, agent for C. & C. Mai Lin Co.

FINE BOOTS AND SHOES AT COST.
MRS. L. DOTCHER & SON,
Main street, bet. Second and Third,

Having determined to quit the business and sell their present large stock of furs and leather goods, the public is called to the fact, and the work is so well known we feel confident that an examination will lead to success.

MRS. L. DOTCHER & SON.

8th floor.

Call and Examine Before Buying Elsewhere.

HAVING just arrived from the East with a full assortment of

FALL AND WINTER FANCY AND DO-

I am now sealing up caskets than ever at my old established stand, north-east corner of Seventh and Market streets.

JOHN BAKROW.

NEW GOODS.
U. B. EVARTS,

54 MAIN STREET,
BETWEEN SECOND AND THIRD STREETS, LOUISVILLE, KY.

IMPORTEUR,

Importers of French and English Wall Paper, Plain and Gilt Window Shades;

Looking Glasses;

French Plate Glass;

French and American Window Glass;

Engravings; Artists' Materials;

Portrait and Picture Frames;

CORNICES & GLASS WORK of every description

On hand—antislavery & order.

PATRICK & AMBROTYPE, AN-

PHOTOGRAPHIC GOODS,

Of the most enterprising kinds, which are sent at reduced prices.

Also prepared to introduce a new and elegant style of Oak and Walnut LOOKING GLASS FRAMES which are now taking the place in the Eastern cities of Gloucester, Boston, &c., &c. A complete assortment always in stock.

We beg to leave at the earliest convenience of our friends and of the public generally, to the above advertisement, and to assure them that we have no desire but to do them justice.

Physicians' Prescriptions will receive particular attention at all hours of the day or night.

GEORGE HANCOCK.

EDW. A. PREUSS.—FRED. J. PFINGST.

DRUGGISTS & CHEMISTS,

South Market, between Tenth and Eleventh

Streets. In Drugs and pure and select

Medicines, Chemicals, Perfumery, Archaeological, &c., &c. A complete assortment always in stock.

We beg to leave at the earliest convenience of our friends and of the public generally, to the above advertisement, and to assure them that we have no desire but to do them justice.

Physicians' Prescriptions will receive particular attention at all hours of the day or night.

U. B. EVARTS.

EDWARD A. PREUSS.—FRED. J. PFINGST.

DRUGGISTS & CHEMISTS,

South Market, between Tenth and Eleventh

Streets. In Drugs and pure and select

Medicines, Chemicals, Perfumery, Ar-

chaeological, &c., &c. A complete assortment always in stock.

We beg to leave at the earliest convenience of our friends and of the public generally, to the above advertisement, and to assure them that we have no desire but to do them justice.

Physicians' Prescriptions will receive particular attention at all hours of the day or night.

GEORGE HANCOCK.

FRED. WEBBER CO.,

Gum Elastic House and Steamboat

ROOFERS,

LOUISVILLE, K. Y.

ROOFING GUM, SATURATED PAPER, MOPS, &c.

ADMITTED at the store of Messrs. C. I. & N. D.

DRUGGISTS, 10th & 11th Streets.

DAILY COURIER.

W. N. HALEMAN...W. G. GALT. F. L. MCNEELEY.
PRINTED & PUBLISHED BY THE
LOUISVILLE CURIER PRINTING COMPANY.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
Daily Courier per year.....$5.00 Daily Courier for the County.....6.00 Five copies to a club one year.....25.00 Two copies $3.00;
four copies $6.00;
ten copies $10.00;
two copies $2.00.

The Courier can be had for a advance for $5.00.

For information see our page for particular advertising.

LOUISVILLE:

MONDAY.....OCTOBER 17, 1859.

Completion of Louisville and Nashville Railroad Within two weeks the Louisville and Nashville railroad will be finished. We do not expect to say that no more important event than its completion has occurred in the history of the city of Louisville. From it our city will receive a new impulse in its career of greatness and prosperity; the avenues of trade and commerce with the South will be opened up to our manufacturers and merchants; the products of the South will be brought into the lap of our city, travel will be increased, an impetus will be given to every department of business, and Louisville will at once become the great commercial emporium of the Southwest.

But our city will not alone reap the advantages resulting from the building of the Nashville road; the farmers all along the line of the road will receive from it far greater benefits in the facilities it affords for the transportation of their produce, and the increased value of their lands. The advantages will be reciprocal—Louisville will be benefited; so also will the people along its route.

The estimable value of the road to our city is acknowledged by every one, and yet, although the time of its completion is rapidly approaching, we see no movement on the part of our citizens to celebrate the event in a manner commensurate with its great importance. This should not be.

The leading business men of our city—the merchants, manufacturers, and artisans, should go to work at once, a public meeting of our citizens, and get up such a demonstration as the importtance of the occasion demands.

Democratic Victory in Rush County, Indiana.
For the first time in many years the gallant Democracy of Rush county, under the leadership of Hon.
Jas. L. Robinson, have achieved a glorious victory over the Black Republicans. We heartily rejoice over this triumph of our party, but the more so as we know it was achieved on an orthodox Democratic platform. The Democrats fought the Black Republicans on the square, repudiated Southern Sovereignty, and informed the decision in the Dred Scott case. No wonder that they succeeded. On such a platform, Democracy is bound to prevail wherever there exists any regard for the Federal Constitution and the rights of the South.

And right here we would remark that we are informed that in the recent election in Indiana wherever the Douglas element existed in our party we lost on our previous rate. On the contrary, in those counties not tainted with Douglas our party either held on or increased its majority.

The Baltimore Election—Law.

The late election in Baltimore was controlled, to a great extent, by the "Hood Tch." ("Kip Rap," and other such ruffians). Thirteen Knownothings, and six of the Reform ticket were elected.— The total vote polled in 19 wards was 15,757, and the K. N. majority was 1,255. The Twentieth ward was the scene of great disorder and ruffianism. After the polls had been closed, and a large number of the votes had been counted, another daring outrage was committed. It appears that some persons who were in the room, suddenly turned off the gas, and seizing the ticketholder, broke its pieces and destroyed the ballot, thus defeating Mr. Norris, the Reform candidate, who was ahead of his competitor as far as could, and believed he was being beaten. He was soon after brought into the court-room, and having been brought before the door of his box was but the work of an instant, but, terrified at the flames which met his sight, he ran back to his seat, and sat still and resisted every effort to tear him out. He was soon exhausted by his exertions. Mrs. Monnot succeeded in blindfolding him with part of her dress, when he became tractable and submitted to be led to a place of safety. The stable, where he was left, was filled with smoke issuing from the stables, from which the flames were by this time bursting in every direction. Logan, the pride and pet of her husband, was the first to rush into the stable, and having secured the stable door, he was soon followed by his master, and both of them were completely enveloped in flames. The horses which in the excitement of the moment, without regard to sex or age, were turned into a small entanglement, and, by the common efforts of fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each other, were turned out of the stable, and were soon recovered to a present state of safety. The husband, with the intent of going to Albany to attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men were engaged in various articles in their line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth, with her women—not a man within call, the blood horses, worth nearly $100,000, were in imminent danger. Mrs. Monnot was as paralyzed, but soon recovered to a present state of safety. Her husband's property, even at the risk of his own safety, was sent to him in various directions in search of assistance, she was sent to New York, and by this time the flames were
by this time bursting in every direction. Logan,
the pride and pet of her husband, was the first to
rush into the stable, and having secured the
stable door, he was soon followed by his master,
and both of them were completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses, and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were
soon recovered to a present state of safety. The
husband, with the intent of going to Albany to
attend the State Fair, leaving his wife in charge
of his wife. Shortly after noon, while the men
were engaged in various articles in their
line, was exhibited with pleasure at 118 Fourth,

and soon had every horse turned out. Not
concerned a scene the wildest and most appalling
ever witnessed. The stables, which were sufficiently extensive to accommodate 100 horses,
and hence containing about 100 tons of hay, were
completely enveloped in flames. The horses
which in the excitement of the moment, without
regard to sex or age, were turned into a small en-
tanglement, and, by the common efforts of
fearfully kicking, biting, and tearing, each
other, were turned out of the stable, and were soon recovered to a present state

